vania, is an authorized agent during his absence from the county.
Feb. 19th 1865. J. S. WHITE

The Hon. M. H. Crutcher, attended to business from Richmond, on Wednesday last, in fine health. He learned that in Montgomery, that Schuch had fallen into the hands of the enemy. He thinks captured near from Virginia and North Carolina. He states that from Montgomery, he has heard that Schuch has been a heavy battle fought between Schuch and Johnston. The rumor that Montgomery, that Johnston has shipped Schuch badly Johnston forces captured three of Schuch's officers, the Chaplain, captured Johnston that Schuch was in a very straitened circumstances, and supplies nearly exhausted and collecting for supplies and reinforcements. It is reported that Johnston captured a large number of prisoners. Estimated from from 500 to 20,000.

EXCITEMENT

For the past week our town has been excited to the highest pitch. A large Yankee force, entered Monticello last Monday, a party of them, numbering about 300, came up to Columbus on Friday, and from that place they moved on to the city, where they were met by a large force of our troops, and the fighting was continued until about 10 o'clock. We understand that there was a considerable loss on both sides. The Yankees were forced to retreat, and the city was captured. We learn that the Yankees were numbered about 25,000.
Henceforth from Oxford station that there was a large body of Yankees near the city, and on Monday they were at Oxford. These rumors are false, there are no Yankees here.

Mr. S. S. Smith has lost a Pocket
Book. See Ad.

Mr. H. Kirby has Card in our

THE DEAD OF ALABAMA.

BY ALEX. R. CLITHERELL.

From the balmy Gulf of Mexico, to the rolling Tennessee,
And from the blue Ohio to the plain of New York,
From mountain top and prairie, from island and vale,
And from each barrowed household, in every a woman's wall.

For the DEAD OF ALABAMA, who their sacred blood have poured,
Who have fallen by the cannon, the rifle and the sword,
Who have given up their hearts' blood for the water in this strife,
Who counted independence a greater boon than life.

From the Gulf of Mexico to the rolling Tennessee,
And from the blue Ohio to the plain of New York,
From mountain top and prairie, from island and vale,
And from each barrowed household, in every a woman's wall.

When this bloody war is over, and our liberty obliterated,
And the brave men who have fallen in this strife,
Who died themselves, to make us free, who died for this and mine.
